

Timothy J. McDermott Mediator and Arbitrator

A former partner with one of Florida's largest law firms, and previously board certified in both Business Litigation and Civil Trial law for 25 years, Tim brings a wealth of experience to the dispute resolution field. His litigation practice involved a wide spectrum of civil disputes, ranging from commercial/business disputes, employment matters and real estate litigation to sophisticated products liability and personal injury matters.

During his 44 years of practice, he regularly represented a varied client base, consisting of Fortune 500 clients, governmental entities and individuals, before state and federal courts, as well as administrative bodies. Tim has significant jury and bench trial, appellate and arbitration experience in a wide diversity of matters dealing with complex legal and factual issues and proceedings. Building upon and applying the fruits of his experience, Tim now devotes his full-time practice to dispute resolution.
